Exalted Ruler's Message

By Virginia Basil

On behalf of the Raymond Elks Officers and Staff I want to wish all of you and your families a safe and Merry Christmas. With the ongoing surge in Covid-19 cases, the state has made us suspend almost all of our activities for December. However, we will be having a blood drive on Wednesday, December 9th. We will also be starting up our Emergency Meal Program where we will offer free meals on December 2nd, 8th, and 16th. We will be providing drive thru services for Elk members on those dates. To RSVP, please message or call Bethany Barnard at 360-580-5651.

Hopefully, we will have good news by the 14th on reopening the Lodge. Please stay healthy and safe. Have a blessed Christmas. Your Lodge Officers have Elks calendars for sale. Missing everyone.

ENF Grant Received

The Lodge received a grant from Elks National Foundation to help the homeless and families in need in North Pacific County. Tents and duffle bags filled with sleeping bags, coats, tarps, hand warmers, socks, scarf, gloves, hygiene kit and other essentials were filled by PERs Susie Smith and Jim Olsen, along with Bethany Bernard and Kelly Habersetzer and will be distributed by case workers. More essential items will be distributed to our EMP families and through the schools. Elks Care Elks Share!
