Exalted Ruler's Message
By Virginia A. Basil

Well we are off to an amazing start this year. As you know my motto is 2021-2022 It's All About You - Our members and their families. We had a wonderful installation of officer and a well-attended dinner the following Friday. Hopefully, our Friday dinners will continue to pick up.

The 20th we initiated 7 new members into the order. Very encouraging. Remember you all know how to find me if you have suggestions or heaven forbid complaints. We are again just thankful to be able to be open and running after the last year we all endured. Thank you so much for being and Elk and being involved.

LOE News

By Linda Stepp, LOE President

Our LOE Officers were installed by PER Susie Smith in April and we are ready to do great things this year.

We will continue to do a Friday night dinner per month, assist with memorials and any special events. We have discussed helping local non-profits with fund raisers to help them raise much needed money since they were not able to have any social gatherings during Covid, such as tea parties, luncheons, membership drives, etc.

The LOE continues to meet every third Wednesday at 5:30pm at the Lodge or on Facebook Chats "LOE Members." Join us and get involved with the Lodge and the community.

GER and Endorsed Candidate for GER Visit Raymond Elks Lodge

We had some special visitors last month. Grand Exalted Ruler Paul Ryan and his wife Stacy, and Endorsed Candidate for Grand Exalted Ruler Keith Mills and his wife Amy. ER Virginia stole them away from their Oregon convention and gave them a tour of Pacific County. They stopped by our Lodge, and then they were off to a feast cooked by Joe Basil. A good time was had by all. So proud of our Lodge.
