Exalted Ruler's Message

By Virginia A. Basil

Lots of fun action going on at the lodge lately. We have our King of Clubs and 50/50 on Friday nights when there is a dinner.

Joe and a group of volunteers did a wonderful Prime Rib dinner last Saturday night to honor the hospital workers that were the front-line people for COVID-19 testing this last year along with other staff.

Several Non-profit organizations had silent auctions in our lodge room over Willapa Days and made some good money for their causes. Also, money was raised to help member Shelly Anderson, who is learning to cope with changes after medical issues.

Shannon is getting the Seahawks Club going again this year. Jenn will be our new Sunday bartender for the Seahawks Club. A fun time will be had at the Lodge picnic coming up soon.

Your lodge is following the state mask mandates again. Please adhere to the rules as posted.

Your server is just following the rules if you are reminded to wear your mask, so please be kind.

We are actively trying to hire bartenders and a Club Manager. If you know someone that you would like serving you, send them down for an application.

So, I know it's only September, but we need to start thinking about Lodge Officer's for next year. The Lodge has to have officers elected and sitting in the chairs for our facility to function. Yes, there is quite a bit of time and responsibility to being a Lodge officer, but that is the kind of commitment needed to assure our organization can continue to assist veterans, children, students, communities in need, Hoop Shoot, Elk's Therapy, Elk's scholarships to name a few. And yes, to keep the doors open to our building for all to enjoy membership. Please take a moment to help consider our future at the Raymond Elks.

New Covid Rules Affecting Lodge

Washington State Governor Jay Inslee, upon the recommendation of the CDC issued a statewide mask mandate for all person regardless of your vaccination status, to wear a face mask in all indoor spaces beginning Monday, August 23rd .

What this means to Lodge #1292 is all members and guests entering our building will need to be wearing a face mask.

When seated and actively eating or drinking you may remove your mask, as long as you are seated.

Masks will be required in all Lodge meetings, committee meetings and Board meetings.

At this time Masks are not required at outdoor events but strongly advised. We are still fully open and will continue to have fun in our Lodge.
